Mike Strack

On Monday night, November 2nd, 2009, the High Desert Pod not only lost its Great Pepper, it lost a great guy. Mike Strack was taken from us after a much too brief encounter with ALS, better known as Lou Gehrig's disease. I first met Mike at a chili cookoff at a place called Fred's Arena near Three Points outside of Tucson. We cooked together. I can't remember if either of us scored in chili, but I know I scored big in having met my new-found friend. We spent the last twenty some years trying to out cook and out lie each other, going to TICC together and sharing war stories. My heart has been temporarily broken but the great times we had will, in time, overshadow the remaining sorrow of our loss. I have never had the privilege of being "maid of honor" to a better guy.

Goodbye my friend. See you on the "Trail" sometime down the road, Ben Berry

We will all Miss you Mike!

A quick apology, I have many excuses for being so behind on this newsletter but I will spare all of you from them. I will try to be more efficient in the future and will try to get photos so the newsletter will have better! Kim
